HIGH SCHOOL BOYS AND GIRLS WIN HISTORIC HONORS IN CLASS PLAY

It was a big event. The theater was full. The overflow had to be satisfied with any little nook, corner, or staircase for glad parents, happy friends, and a most interested public were in attendance to see the presentation of "The Schoolmistress" given by the seniors of Tonopah high.

The credit and success of the play reflects credit on Miss Catherine Smith, teacher of English. She worked most assiduously with the pupils and the final interpretation of last evening showed how well her work was done.

The composite character of the public schools was exemplified. In the orchestra was a young pupil of Chinese extraction. Figuring in the cast of the play was a very bright young Filipino. The high school orchestra played at the beginning of the entertainment and during the intermissions. The selections were well rendered and for their first year work, the musicians received great encouragement in the applause received.

There were sixteen characters in the play and as each one was very good it is difficult to summarize. Miss Gertrude Rippingham maintained her role of the schoolmistress with excellent poise and the histrionic ability she possesses was marked. In the final act her stage gown of lovely pink satin as a comic opera singer set young hearts palpitating.

John Cuddy portrayed a character which evidenced a close study of foreign relations. Joe Murphy had the salient traits of the old admiral well in hand. Fannie Holmes could not have been sweeter in real life than she was as the admiral's wife, Helen Mitchell, fair and winsome, made an attractive school bride. Walter Rountree essayed a weakling husband, but no one could have done better. Louretta Walsh was equal to all complications and managed every little detail with consummate skill. Her stage presence is most pleasing. Howard Coulter could not hide his light under a bushel and certainly made the ideal lieutenant. Carl Monahan has the strain in his ancestral blood to be heard from later. May Kimball was sunny and fascinating with her school girl wiles. Madeline Wilson with school girl reserve was gracious captivated. G. M. Secilla lent a touch to the scene that showed careful study in its delineation. Addie Murphy would command high wages as a maid in play or home with her beauty as an asset. Joe Futsich and Earl Hobe as firemen may never long linger or linger long for a job as their activity in this line would recommend them at once. Teddy Martinson will probably rise higher than a page the duties of which he now knows how to perform with perfection.

The stage setting had an artistic character that was quite in keeping with the professional life. The girls made an exceedingly pretty bouquet of loveliness.

STRANDED ON DESERT UNTIL HELP COMES

Thomas J. Lynch, deputy U. S. revenue collector and W. B. Evans, chief of police, en route to the Duckwater section on official business succeeded in reaching Clifford when the car broke down and they were left helpless until a motorist happened to pass on his way to Tonopah and consented to carry a note asking that a relief car be dispatched to the aid. Bill Young was secured and left in time to reach the distressed voyagers before midnight. Evans and Lynch took the relief car and the rescue party brought back the crippled car after repairing the broken parts.

MILK STIMULANT BUOYS UP SOLDIERS

FRENCH GOVERNMENT GIVES RESULT OF CLOSE OBSERVATION SCIENTISTS

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 3. — Will milk in the future become one of the athletic trainer's principal aids in turning out lanky performers in the various branches of sport.

According to press dispatches, the Pasteur Institute of Paris has just made the declaration that one of the most powerful stimulants known is milk. It has been in use for months now as the one stimulant for the French soldiers in the trenches and its effect on them is said to amply justify the statement made by the famous institute in regard to it.

Milk has been used liberally to stimulate the French soldiers before they go into battle and its effects have been such that the French government has urged the sale of milk, in preference to other soft drinks, behind the trenches when the soldiers go off duty for their spells of rest and recreation.

Whether or not this information will induce the men in charge of the physical upbuilding of the athlete to try it effect on men in training remains to be seen. While milk has, for many years, been an incidental on the training table menu, it cannot be said that it has been regarded in the past as a beverage with any particular "punch" to it.

WELL KNOWN MINER BURIED TODAY

RELATIVES ALL IN OLD COUNTRY BUT FRIENDS ACCEDE TO DYING WISHES

The funeral of the late Patrick Scott, who was well known among Tonopah miners previous to the time he contracted consumption, was conducted this morning from Knights of Columbus hall. Deceased was a member of the organization but he had many friends in the order which assumed charge of the burial. The deceased expressed the last wish that his funeral be attended by a solemn requiem mass which was celebrated this morning by Father Diss who spoke in an affecting strain on the man's life. It seems that, in spite of his humble occupation in Tonopah Mr. Scott was educated for the priesthood and, after graduating with honors, concluded that he was not fitted for the ministry.

Scott could not give the addresses of any member of his family whom he said were scattered all around the world but his interment was attended by all the honors that could be extended to an old resident.

WILLIAM S. MARKS, late manager of the Mizpah hotel, left this morning for a visit to his old friends in San Francisco.

SALE OF DEVICES FOR LESSENING LABOR

The sale of household appliances by the electric and generating companies of the country dates from only a few years back, but at the present time their manufacture and sale form one of the big branches of the electric trade. Estimates made not long ago by one of the big manufacturing companies show a long list of electric appliances which are steadily gaining in popularity.

At the head of the list is the electric flat iron, 3,926,000 having been sold, while not far behind are electric fans, there having been 1,630,000 of them marketed throughout the country. Other appliances in common use are vacuum cleaners, 469,000; disk stoves, 235,000; washing machines, 212,000; electric grills, 114,000; percolators, 106,000. In all there were 8,000,000 of these appliances now in use in American homes, the balance being made up of heaters, heating pads, chafing dishes, dish washers and many other devices calculated to lessen household labor. The demand for them, it is said, is steadily increasing.—New York Evening Post.

TESTING THE HIGH PRESSURE FIRE HYDRANT SYSTEM

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

The program at the Butler this evening will consist of a double bill, "The Girl and the Game," a two-reel railroad drama featuring fearless Helen Holmes, and "A Man's Making," featuring Richard Buhler, the popular stage favorite, who makes his second appearance under the Lubin banner in a stirring study of life, which is both written and directed by Jack Pratt, adapted for the screen by Anthony P. Kelly. This feature is in five reels and is of the type which carries an appeal to young and old alike with its vivid depiction of the struggle of a real rugged young college-bred American fellow against the odds of the world in his determination to prove his worth. Among the punches of the picture are exciting scenes of a foot ball game with real college foot ball players; a terrific fight between two rivals for a girl's hand, the struggle of the two men at the cross trees of the forest with the fall to the deck below; vivid impressions of the money market, stock exchange houses and curb markets of Wall street.

Tomorrow, a Bray cartoon comedy, which are always good, and a Paramount production featuring Hazel Dawn in the photo-adaptation of Henry Arthur Jones' international dramatic success, "The Masqueraders," in which Miss Dawn's ability as an actress is vividly brought out.
